3.4 Extension Activities

3.4.1 Extension activities are carried out in the neighborhood community, sensitizing students to social issues for their holistic development and impact thereof during the year.

Response

CTIMIT encourages student involvement in social activities like sports, NSS events, blood donation drives, health fairs, tree planting, and the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, aligning with its mission to provide technical education with ethical values.

Faculty oversee NSS activities, track participation, and award certificates. Volunteer teams, guided by faculty, engage in sports, technical, and cultural events. Details of programs are shared through notice boards, circulars, and briefings.

The Women's Cell addresses harassment complaints, celebrates Women's Day, organizes empowerment seminars, and provides a lady's lounge with first aid supplies.

The institute hosts seminars on environmental and social awareness, promotes social responsibility through the library's socio-economic magazines, and supports students in accessing state and federal funding.

CTIMIT's annual cultural and technical festival, Colors 2024, is held each year.

Outcomes of Extension activities in the neighborhood community in terms of impact and sensitizing the students to social issues for their holistic development during the last five years.

CTIMIT organizes a variety of events to showcase students' creativity and talent, including technical, cultural, business plan competitions, and literacy activities. The institute fully sponsors prizes for the best performances. Annual technical festivals invite students from various institutions to participate in events such as project displays, technical quizzes, poster presentations, and paper presentations.

Students are trained in aptitude, personality development, and other skills to enhance their employability and entrepreneurial potential. These initiatives are key to their overall development. The English Language & Communication Skills Lab (ELCS) helps students from vernacular backgrounds improve their soft skills, writing, and communication abilities, preparing them for the workforce with training in verbal and nonverbal communication and aptitude.

CTIMIT is committed to community engagement and neighborhood well-being, organizing various community development activities like Blood Donation Camps, Swachh Bharat Abhiyan, Sports Meet, World Environment Day, Earth Day, and Women's Day.
